

Put the verbs between brackets at the correct tense: Preterit or Preterit Be + ing

- 1- When I (arrive) at the airport, I (see) a band of young Americans who (make) fun of a lumberjack.
- 2- I (admire) the flowers when I (hear) a band of people who (speak) loudly.
- 3- I (stroll) not very far from the forest as I (overhear) a conversation.
- 4- I (move) closer but I (stop) short. I (hide) behind a tree and I (start) to listen.
- 5- I (see) the students (laugh) while the woodcutter (blush).
- 6- One summer day, I (walk) in a beautiful Canadian street. Suddenly, I (see) a band of tourists who (rush) out of a mall.
- 7- The lumberjack (turn) around and (stare) at them. They (stop) laughing.
- 8- They (drink) alcohol when a lumberjack (arrive) to cut a tree.
- 9- They (notice) he (run) towards themselves. He (brandish) his axe in the air.
- 10- Now they (cry) but the lumberjack (keep) running in their direction.

"Stop bothering me!", he complained.

"Or what? You will tell your friends the beavers?", the American brat retorted. (Antoine)

"Do you know what you call a drunk woodcutter? --- a rum-berjack!", he burst out laughing. (Cindy)