

crime	the police force to commit a crime a criminal a recidivist a serial killer ['sɪəriəl]	a police officer/ a cop* an inspector a detective/ a private eye a forensic scientist to murder/ to slaughter ['slɔ:tə] a murder a murderer	the detective police the crime squad [skwɒd] forensic science a homicide ['hɒmɪsaɪd] a manslaughter assault and battery [ə'sɔ:lt]	a police enquiry [ɪn'kwɛəri] to carry out an investigation to investigate a murder the scene of the crime the murder weapon	an arrest [ə'rest] to arrest a puddle of blood [bʌd] to kill in cold blood	a suspect to pick up a suspect to question to attack/ to assault/ to mug an attack/ an assault/ mugging an attacker/ an assailant/ a mugger	a case [keɪs] a witness to witness a crime to burglarize/ to break in ['bɜ:g]əraɪz] a burglary a burglar to steal sth from sb/ to rob sb of sth a robber/ a thief [θi:f]	a motive ['mɒtɪv] an alibi ['ælibaɪ] a warrant a search warrant to swindle sb out of sth a swindle a crook/ a swindler	to charge sb with sth to be guilty of the culprit to convict of to sentence to
to blackmail
fishy dishonest/ crooked ['krʊkɪd] a muffled voice	a clue [klu:] a piece of evidence/ evidence handcuffs a trial/ a lawsuit ['traɪəl] a lawyer ['lɔ:jə] a judge an accomplice to catch sb red-handed

Instructions: The list of words seems difficult for you to memorize. You must create, thanks to the list and the definitions, a vocabulary file (mind map or spider gram) that will enable you to learn the words easily.