

In the past, “Big Tobacco*” has compared the addictiveness of cigarettes with M&M’s.

the (Big Tobacco- pejorative term often applied to the tobacco industry in general, or more particularly to the "big three" tobacco corporations in the United States: Philip Morris, Reynolds American and Lorillard)

True

In the U.S., tobacco kills more Americans than AIDS, alcohol, car accidents, murders, suicides, drugs, and fires combined.

True

Every 6.5 seconds, someone in the world dies from a smoking-related disease.

True

10% of lung cancers is attributable to tobacco products.

False, 90%.

Human and Yeti carcinogens* can be found in cigarette smoke.

(carcinogens- substances directly involved in causing cancer)

False, Yetis don't exist! But animal and human carcinogens are found in cigarette smoke.

In 1974, one tobacco company explored targeting customers as young as 17.

False, as young as 14.

353 people will die from lung cancer this year

False, 353 people a day.

In tobacco documents, potential smokers were labeled as having buckteeth and being gimpy.

False, but they did label them as having low self-esteem.

http://www.thetruth.com/facts/truth_or_false/