French Teacher

Experience

University of Reading, England

2011 – 2012: Teaching Assistant of French

I teach Oral French to both Intermediate and Advanced Learners (1st, 2nd and 3rd year of a Bachelor's), Written French to Advanced Learners (1st and 2nd year), and French for Managers to 2nd Year students specialized in French and Management. As a teaching assistant, I take part in the organization of the classes, develop teaching materials for my classes and for the next Lecteurs, and am part of the examination panel.

Poitiers, France

2010: Development of an electronic workbook of French

I uploaded courses, exercises, and pedagogical materials on my e-learning blog, which can be found at: <http://www.oh-la-la.me>. All the materials that are presented there have been previously tested on different classes of students.

Lycée Pilote Innovant International, Jaunay-Clan, France

2010: Teaching practice (2nd year of Master's)

I taught French as a Schooling Language to Chinese students in a French high school (level A2/B1) and French as a Foreign Language to students from Thailand and Slovakia (Level B1/B2). I took part in the organization of social, cultural and pedagogical events in the high school.

Faculty of Literature Humanities, Coimbra, Portugal

2009: Teaching practice (1st year of Master's)

I taught "Advanced" French to students in a Bachelor's degree program of French (B1), and French "in the Daily Life" to students from various Master's (A2/B1).

Poitiers, France

2008 - 2011: Individual lessons

I have given individual lessons of French as a Foreign Language, and French as a Schooling Language to students from various origins (Asia, Europe, North America).

Primary school, Glidji, Togo

2006: International Volunteering

I taught French as a Second Language to Togolese children aged between 9 and 16.
