

My Day In Jersey

We went to Jersey on June 11th.

We left from Argentré-du-Plessis at 5:30 a-m by coach.

We went to St-Malo and we took the CONDOR FRERRY to Jersey.

We left from St-Malo at 8:00 a-m.

The colour of the boat was white, blue, and red.

On the boat there was a Duty Free Shop and in the shop there were souvenirs, perfumes and make-up, fish and chips and sweets, chocolates and a small change office.

I changed my money on the ferry.

We landed to Jersey at 8:00 a-m, because there is a time difference of 1 hour.

We went to the tourist information to get three maps and three flags.

We saw the statue of Liberation Square. The sculptor is Philip Jackson.

There are seven people on the statue.

In front of the statue there is a hotel and the name is Pomme D'Or.

In the end of the morning we visited the Central Market. There were lots of fruit, souvenirs, a baker's, vegetables, bags and restaurants.

Then, we had lunch at Royal Square.

Ronan and his group