

Artist: Eddy Arnold
Song: Red River Valley

COUPLET 1

>From this C valley , they say you are going
I will miss your bright eyes & sweet G smile
For they C say you are taking the F sunshine
That has C brightened our G pathway awChile

REFRAIN 1

Come & C sit by my side , if you love me
Do not hasten to bid me G adieu
Just reCmember the Red River F Valley
And the C home-boy that G loved you so C true

PONT

For a C long time ,my dear , I've been waiting
For those words that you never would G say
But at C last all my fond hopes have F vanished
For they C say you are G going aCway

Won't you C think of this valley your leaving
And how lonely & sad it will G be
And think C of the heart, that you are F breaking
And the C grief that you G are causing C me
