

Anderson John Seminole Wind

INTRO PIANO Em G D A X2

INTRO RYTHMIQUE Em G D A X2

COUPLET 1

Em Ever since the G days of old

D Men would search for A wealth untold

Em They'd dig for silver G and for gold

D And leave the A empty holes

Em And way down south in the G Everglades

Where the D black water rolls and the A saw grass waves

Em The eagles fly and the G otters play

In the D land of the A Seminole

REFRAIN 1

Em So blow, blow G Seminole wind

D Blow like you're never gonna A blow again

Em I'm callin' to you like a G long-lost friend

But D I don't know who you A are;

And Em blow, blow from the G Okeechobee

All D the way up to A Micanopy

Em Blow across the home of the G Seminole

The D aligator and the A gull

PONT Em G D A X2

COUPLET 2

Em Progress came and G took its toll

D And in the name of A flood control

They Em made their plans and they G drained the land

Now the D Glades are goin' A dry

And the Em last time I G walked in the swamp

I D stood up on a cypruss A stump

Em I listened close and I G heard the ghost

Of D Oseola A cry

REFRAIN 2

Em So blow, blow G Seminole wind

D Blow like you're never gonna A blow again

Em I'm callin' to you like a G long-lost friend

But D I don't know who you A are;

And Em blow, blow from the G Okeechobee

All D the way up to A Micanopy

Em Blow across the home of the G Seminole

The D aligator and the A gull
