Mataas Na Guro Daniel LONERO

Daniel LONERO follows the teaching of Sifu / Guro dan INOSANTO for more than twenty years.

It is unquestionably one of its most talented Fulls Instructors of its generation.

He is for numerous years his assistant, and permanent Instructor in INOSANTO academy of Los Angeles where he teaches several disciplines. Also student of Yori NAKAMURA, Ajarn Chai SIRISUTE and Erik PAULSON, he was named Full Instructor by the latters in the disciplines of Shootwrestling, a competitor of which he was titled in The United States, of Muay Thai and the Combat Submission Wrestling.

He is also certified in French Savate Boxing by the professor and one of promoter of the French Boxing in the United States, Nicolas SAIGNAC.

Since 2010, he created his school under the name of XTMA (Cross Training Martial Arts) situated in Los Angeles.

This school counts around thirty instructors and advanced students today. She is already present on a dozen countries in the world, of which France. Two-three times a year, he travels Europe or he dispenses seminars and instructors' camps.

Character at the same time very accessible and fascinated by its art, speaking fluently three languages among which French, followers of Kali Eskrima in France have had of numerous opportunity to appreciate its very high level in the technical and educational domains, as much as its big availability towards the participants.

In a private Personally, I am very happy to receive this friend and exceptional instructor for whom I have already organized more thirty seminar and work Shop for more than ten years. I renew him my invitation year by year and I invite my students, as other followers, to take advantage of his presence and its knowledge.
