

Join the club

In the Pyrenees town of Urrugne one thing is clear – to get ahead you need to get a hat. Not just any hat, but that most classic of French headgear, the beret. Originally worn by Basque peasants, during the Second World War it was worn by Le Maquis, the French Resistance. The beret was later adopted by Beatnik artists and intellectuals of the 1950s. 🇫🇷